

SUPPORTING FAMILIES EMPOWERING COMMUNITIES

Nutrition Services Through Cornell Cooperative Extension of Jefferson County

Are you or someone in your family interested in Nutrition Education?
CCE Jefferson in partnership with Healthy Alliance, is now offering nutrition services billable through Medicaid.

Medicaid Billable Services Available Through CCE Jefferson

Screening Services - screens for a variety of social care needs, including assistance with housing, transportation, care management, domestic violence, nutrition counseling and education, and more.

Navigation Services - helps clients and families navigate through a wide variety of available social care services offered in their community. This service will then provide a referral to these services based on eligibility.

Nutrition and Education - healthy meal planning, nutrition intervention, nutrition education, and more provided by a Registered Dietician at CCE Jefferson.

Navigation Services

- Housing Services - accessibility & safety modifications, home remediation, Asthma remediation, recuperative care & medical respite, rent & temporary housing, utility setup & assistance, pre-tenancy services, community transitional support, tenancy sustaining services, housing & transitional services.
- Transportation Service - public and private transportation assistance.
- Care Management - case management, outreach, referral, and education, including linkage and application support for other state and federal benefit programs. Connection to clinical case management services. Connection to employment, education, childcare and interpersonal violence resources, and more.

For More Information Please Contact:

Hilary Moore | Nutrition, Health, & Wellness Program Manager

315-788-8450 ext. 265 | hsm77@cornell.edu

Cornell Cooperative Extension | Jefferson County

Cornell Cooperative Extension is an employer and educator recognized for providing equal program and employment opportunities in accordance with applicable laws.